

Moon Palace Nizuc

Location: Cancun, Mexico

Resort Type: Family Friendly

Resort Summary

Moon Palace Nizuc is one of the two main sections of the Moon Palace Cancun resort. It's located just a short distance from the Cancun International Airport, making for an easy transfer after your flight. The resort offers a wide range of amenities, including multiple restaurants and bars, a sprawling outdoor pool with a children's area, a kids' club called "The Playroom," and nightly entertainment. Guests can enjoy a refined but easygoing atmosphere with access to beautiful gardens and oceanfront views.

Guests staying at Moon Palace Nizuc have full access to the amenities in the adjacent Sunrise section. However, use of Moon Palace The Grand - Cancun requires the purchase of a separate day pass for access to its facilities.

Room Types

Superior Deluxe Garden View (Max 4 People): Offers a view of the lush resort gardens. They can be configured with a king-size bed or two double beds.

Superior Deluxe Ocean View (Max 4 People): Offers a view of the Caribbean Sea. They can be configured with a king-size bed or two double beds.

Superior Deluxe Ocean Front (Max 4 People): Offers a view of the Caribbean Sea. They can be configured with a king-size bed.

Superior Honeymoon Suite (Max 2 Adults): Specifically designed for couples, these suites typically feature a king-size bed, an ocean view, and exclusive amenities to enhance a romantic getaway.

Superior Governor Suite (Max 4 People): A more spacious option that features a separate living area and a king-size bed, often with an ocean view.

Superior Family Suite (Max 6 People): Consists of two connecting rooms: one with a king-size bed and the other with two double beds. Includes special amenities for kids, like a mini-bar stocked with kid-friendly snacks and drinks.