

Moon Palace Sunrise

Location: Cancun, Mexico

Resort Type: Family Friendly

Resort Summary

Moon Palace Sunrise is one of the two main sections of the Moon Palace Cancun resort. It's located just a short distance from the Cancun International Airport, making for an easy transfer after your flight. Some of the most popular attractions in the Sunrise section are the FlowRider double wave simulator for surfing, a massive main pool with a lively swim-up bar, and a dedicated water park with slides and splash pads for kids. The resort also offers a full fitness center, a teen's arcade lounge, and a nightclub for adults.

Guests staying at Moon Palace Sunrise have full access to the amenities in the adjacent Nizuc section. However, use of Moon Palace The Grand - Cancun requires the purchase of a separate day pass for access to its facilities.

Room Types

Superior Deluxe Garden View (Max 4 People): Offers a view of the lush resort gardens. They can be configured with a king-size bed or two double beds.

Superior Deluxe Ocean View (Max 4 People): Offers a view of the Caribbean Sea. They can be configured with a king-size bed or two double beds.

Superior Honeymoon Suite (Max 2 Adults): Specifically designed for couples, these suites typically feature a king-size bed, an ocean view, and exclusive amenities to enhance a romantic getaway.

Swim Up Suite (Max 4 People): Offers a private balcony with direct access to a semi-private pool, allowing guests to step right from their room into the water.

Superior Governor Suite (Max 4 People): A more spacious option that features a separate living area and a king-size bed, often with an ocean view.

Superior Family Suite (Max 6 People): Consists of two connecting rooms: one with a king-size bed and the other with two double beds. Includes special amenities for kids, like a mini-bar stocked with kid-friendly snacks and drinks.

Two Bedroom Presidential Suite (Max 8 People): The most lavish accommodation, these suites offer an ocean view, two bedrooms, a spacious living area, and upgraded amenities like a fully stocked bar and an espresso machine.