

Playacar Palace

Location: Playa del Carmen, Mexico

Resort Type: Family Friendly

Resort Summary

Playacar Palace is a luxurious all-inclusive resort situated in the heart of Playa del Carmen, offering a convenient location that is just a short walk from the famous Fifth Avenue, a bustling street known for its shops, restaurants, and nightlife. This resort provides a more intimate and compact experience compared to the larger Palace Resorts, making it perfect for travelers who want to be close to both the beach and the vibrant town. The resort caters to a variety of guests, including families and couples, with a beautiful oceanfront pool, a swim-up bar, multiple dining options, and a kids' club called "The Playroom." Its location also makes it an ideal base for exploring the area.

Playacar Palace's prime location is a major benefit, as you can easily walk to the ferry terminal for a day trip to the island of Cozumel or simply explore the town of Playa del Carmen on foot. The all-inclusive package covers meals at its four restaurants, snacks, and a selection of top-shelf beverages. Guests also have the unique advantage of "exchange privileges," meaning they can use the facilities at other Palace Resorts in the area, such as Cozumel Palace and Moon Palace Cancun, giving them access to a wider range of amenities and activities.
